DXC Technology Company welcomes Anthony Gonzalez and Karl Racine to its board

Description

Multinational information technology services and consulting company DXC Technology Company appointed former Ohio congressman Anthony Gonzalez and former District of Columbia attorney general Karl Racine to their board of directors.

"On behalf of all of our directors, we are excited to welcome Anthony and Karl to the DXC board," said Mike Salvino, DXC chairman, president and CEO. "They bring proven leadership abilities and valuable experience to our board, and our management team is looking forward to working with both of them.”

Gonzalez was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives representing Ohio’s 16th congressional district in November 2018. He was sworn in January 2019, and reelected in 2020. He served on the House Financial Services Committee and the House Committee on Science, Space and Technology.

Previously, Gonzalez served as COO of Informed K12, a workflow automation platform developed to help K-12 school and district administrators instantly move any paper-based processes entirely online. He served as the director of business development for Beneco, a contracting advocacy firm providing retirement, health and ancillary benefit solutions to contractors that perform prevailing wage work. Gonzalez played college football at The Ohio State University and was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2007 NFL Draft. He played five seasons as a wide receiver.

Karl Racine joined the global law firm of Hogan Lovells in January 2023. He was sworn in as the District of Columbia’s first elected attorney general in 2015 and reelected to a second term in 2018, serving until January 2023. In his two terms as D.C. attorney general, he built what is widely viewed as one of the strongest and most active attorney general offices in the United States. In 2021, he served as president of the bipartisan National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG). In 2022, NAAG awarded Racine the highest honor bestowed to a sitting attorney general — the Kelley-Wyman Award.

Over the course of his career, Racine worked at the Public Defender Service for the District of Columbia, served as associate White House counsel to President Bill Clinton, and worked on criminal cases and civil litigation at private firms. While in private practice, he was elected managing partner of his firm, Venable LLP, and became the first African American managing partner of a top-100 American law firm.

Racine currently serves on the board of Safe Harbor Financial LLC, a financial services technology firm that serves the regulated cannabis industry.

Date Created
July 11, 2023

Author
bwenger